A commercial driver's license or CDL is a license that allows drivers to operate heavy vehicles on the roadway. CDL's are broken down into different classifications or "classes" of vehicles based on their weight and are defined by letters. In addition, drivers can earn endorsements for different types of vehicles within those weight classifications.

These endorsements are also defined by letters. - See more at:
